CONGREGATION RAMATH ORAH ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP

Dear Friends:

As you know, Ramath Orah is an organization run for its members, and even more importantly, by its members. Dues are the single most important financial basis for the ongoing maintenance of our Synagogue, and the salaries of our staff. We on the Board are working as hard as we can to contain these costs, and we are pleased to announce that there will be no increase in dues this year. However, as we have in previous years, we need to ask you to recognize the prime importance that our Dues play in supporting our shul, and the wider community, including our communal obligations to institutions such as the Upper West Side mikvah and the Manhattan eruv.

We endeavor to keep our membership donations as low as possible. If you have been blessed with the opportunity to make a larger donation, please do so. If you are having financial difficulties meeting the membership dues obligations, please contact one of our Rabbis or the President to discuss alternate financial arrangements. All conversations will be kept completely confidential.

Membership dues paid to Ramath Orah are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law, in the year in which they are paid. Should you have any questions regarding membership dues, please contact the office at (212) 222-2470 or info@ramathorah.org.

Dues are based on the secular calendar year. However, to accommodate those that prefer making their contribution in the Fall, we recognize Membership Dues that are paid in the Fall as belonging to the following year.

For the Board,

Jeff Bogursky

President

Josh Levine

Chair, Membership Committee
